"A LAND TWICED PROMISED"

Storytelling performance for adults and teens

Storyteller Noa Baum, an Israeli who began a heartfelt dialogue with a Palestinian woman while living in the United States, weaves together their memories and their mothers' stories. She creates a moving testimony illuminating the complex and contradictory history and emotions that surround Jerusalem for Israelis and Palestinians alike.

The DVD includes:

- 68 min. full show
- Insert with information on sources and organizations working for peace in Israel/Palestine

"The stunning result of Baum's work is not a competition of narratives, but a consolidation of them. Or to use a musical metaphor, her alternating of Jewish and Arab stories created a point/counterpoint that feels more like a richly dissonant piece of music than a political debate".

Daniel Schifrin, The Jewish Week, New York
